

Class #31 - Turning Point, part 2 (Ezekiel 33)

Discussion Questions

- Is it right for us to see ourselves as watchmen like Ezekiel? Are there passages that would inform the answer to this question one way or the other?
- Ezekiel's audience is the people of God. As the people of God today, how are we most likely to respond to God's word in the same way as them?

Review

I. Ezekiel 1-24 : _____ on Jerusalem

- ch.1-3 _____ A. The soul who sins will die.
- ch.4-7 _____ B. Samaria & Jerusalem as two promiscuous sisters.
- ch.8-11 _____ C. Sign Acts: Model of Jerusalem, cutting hair with a sword.
- ch.16 _____ D. Jerusalem described as the wife turned harlot.
- ch.18 _____ E. Jerusalem a defiled pot, boiled and melted by God.
- ch.20 _____ F. God rehearses Israel's pattern of rebellion.
- ch.23 _____ G. Vision of idolatry in the temple, God's glory leaving.
- ch.24 _____ H. Ezekiel sees God's glory and is called as a watchman.

II. Ezekiel 25-32: Judgment on the _____

- ch.25 _____ I. Egypt
- ch.26-28 _____ J. Ammon, Moab, Edom, & Philistia
- ch.29-32 _____ K. Tyre (& Sidon)

Looking Ahead

- Watch "Ezekiel 34-48" (The Bible Project - YouTube.com or thebibleproject.com)