

#32 - Our Father Commanded (Jeremiah 35)

I. The Rechabites (35:1-11)

- Going back in time, we are in the days of _____ (609-598 BC). (1)
- Jeremiah told to invite the Rechabites into the temple and serve them _____, so he brings them in and acts as their host. (2-5)
- Who are the Rechabites? (see 1 Chron. 2:55; Judg. 1:16; 4:11; 2 Kgs 10:15-17)
- The Rechabites refuse, citing the command of their _____, Jonadab, who had passed down the following rules: (6-9)
 - You shall not _____.
 - You shall not _____ a _____.
 - You shall not _____ seed or _____ vineyards.
 - You shall live in _____.
- They had always _____ these commands, notwithstanding the present situation that drove them to live within the city of Jerusalem. (10-11)

II. The Contrast (35:12-19)

- God uses these Rechabites to highlight a stark contrast: (12-17)

The Rechabites

People of Judah

- Furthermore, because of their faithfulness to the command of their father, God blesses the Rechabites with a _____ family line. (18-19)
